

Meet Uno

Uno is the one sheep the shepherd brought back to the fold of the 99 he left behind. Because every sheep matters, and being part of the Flock matters.

That is why Uno is the mascot of Flocknote, a popular communication tool used by churches across the country to help Catholics connect, and reconnect, with their Flock.

Flocknote offers a simple way, via email or text, to know what is happening at church. Signup is crazy simple.

How simple? No accounts, no passwords. Just an email or phone number is needed.

That simple.
